DeFuniak Springs, Fla — The Florida Department of Health in Walton County is warning residents about scam calls regarding COVID-19 test results during which the caller requests personal information. The caller ID may show up as the health department's phone number. As part of contact tracing or the reporting of COVID-19 test results, the Florida Department of Health in Walton County will never ask for your social security number or personal financial information. We will only call you regarding your test results, to follow-up on a positive test result or let you know about an exposure to COVID-19.

If you are unsure whether the call is from the health department, hang up and dial the health department directly. The Florida Department of Health in Walton County is committed to protecting your personal health information.
